| Proposed Change:                          | Is it possible to make the Assembly Detail "Pop-out" window export to an Excel file? See attached documents for examples. I created the attached Excel example through copy and paste. |                    |              |              |   |
| Justification:                            | To be able to custom tailor the details, units, costs of the assembly to fit our exact needs. More for the Estimating function of CAIS, not so much FIMS.  |                    |              |              |   |
